Campbell County Public Schools provides free adult education classes to prepare individuals 18 years of age and older for the GED® Test. Adults who do not have the goal of earning a GED credential, including those who already have a diploma, may also enroll in classes with the goal of improving literacy and numeracy skills, learning computer skills, and developing soft skills. The program offers continuous enrollment, which means learners can begin at any time. The Adult Education Program follows the same calendar as all Campbell County Public Schools for holiday observances and closures due to inclement weather. For more information, please contact Debbie Elliott, Program Coordinator, at 434-477-5583, extension 8632, or email delliott@campbell.k12.va.us. Schedule is subject to change based on available funding.
